Harbor Committee Seeks $5,000 For Study

The Harbor Study Committee will ask for a $5,000 appropriation at Town Meeting as the local cost for a harbor study.

Both Committee Chairman Charles Fink and Harbormaster Harry Ritter expressed the need for a harbor improvement plan and a harbor fund that would be available to use in conjunction with state money.

"We need money from the town and Coastal Zone Management (CZM)," Fink said. He indicated that the town must appropriate $5,000 or 20 per cent as its portion of the study before CZM will provide the other 80 per cent.

The study, he explained, would not include a geological survey beneath the surface of the water. It would examine the best way to use the harbor in recreational and commercial interests.

Ritter told Selectmen that Cohasset was at a disadvantage in not having a "drop-in" fund or money immediately available to provide matching funds for state and federal programs that the harbor can use.

Fink said that an exact plan for the harbor study has not been drawn up yet, but that the Committee intends to use 30 free hours of engineering donated by CZM to help in mapping out a plan. This plan will then need the blessing of the Selectmen and the town's share of the cost before making out the application to CZM.

"No town can do a thing until CZM has a finger in the pie," Ritter said. "Work with them and work through them. Scituate, Marshfield and Plymouth have taken advantage of this program, we should get our share." Ritter warned that if application wasn't made soon other harbors up and down the coast would use up funds.

Selectmen gave the go ahead to have a plan of the study drawn up.

Another issue that Fink aired was whether the harbor was in need of dredging. Harbor dredging seeks local money in yet another article in the Town Meeting warrant. Funds of approximately $15,700 are now available to the town which could be applied to the removal of areas of suspected ledge rock. The town must agree to pay the additional funds of $41,500 which would amount to the 44 per cent matching fund the town needs.

Films At The Art Center

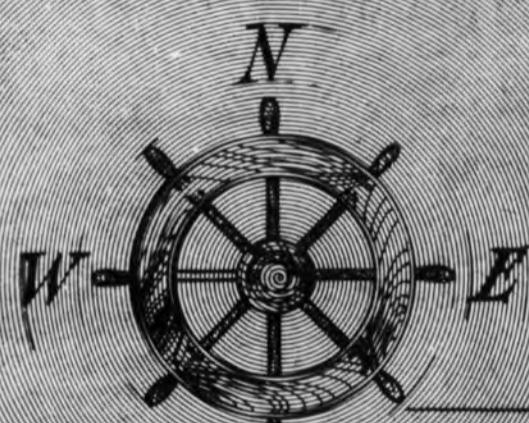

"Sunday at the Center", a series of films for winter viewing, will begin Sunday, Jan. 21 at the South Shore Art Center on Ripley Road.

The first series, "The Romantic Rebellion", will be shown from 4 to 5 p.m. each Sunday through March 4th with tea and informal discussion following each showing. These films are part of the Civilization TV program and are introduced and narrated by Kenneth Clark. The Art Center is pleased to offer this opportunity to view and comment on a highly regarded program.
